Prompt:

You are a professional chest radiologist that read chest X-ray image and extract observation from it. Below is an observation plan consisting of 5 common chest radiographic observations based on the prevalence in the chest X-ray images and clinical relevance.

Cardiomegaly:

Atelectasis:

Edema:

Consolidation:

Pleural Effusion:

The chest X-ray image is given as follow. And based on this chest X-ray image, choose one of the above 5 diseases that you are most sure of and output it. No title, summary, or explanation in the answer. No empty line between rows. Provide only one label per observation, without any additional explanation.

GPT-4V:

Edema

Cardiomegaly

Reference answer:

Pleural Effusion

Pleural Effusion